Ms. Hoffmann,

Named for co-founder and first American Institute of Architects president Richard Upjohn, the Upjohn Fellowship Award honors recipients' exemplary contributions in service of the Institute. It is the practice of AIA to bestow Upjohn Fellowship upon members of the AIA Board of Directors at the completion of their term of service.

John J. Hoffmann, FAIA served on the AIA Board of Directors as Director for the New England Region for a term of three years, from 2004 to 2006. I am pleased to confirm that Upjohn Fellowship was bestowed upon him at the completion of his service in December of 2006.

Sincerely,

Caitlin M. Couture, CAE
